THE DAY OF REST.

Rest, rest! it is the day of Rest-there needs no boo The truth that every thoughtful eye, each heart e read so well;

Rest, rest! it is the Sabbath morn, a quiet fills the Where whispered voice of peace repeats that rest is every where. O weary heart! O heart of wo! raise up thy toil worn brow; The fields, the trees, the very breeze-they all are resting now : The air is still, there is no sound save that unceas ing hum, The insect song of summer time that from the woods doth come.

And even that seems fainter now, like voices far away. As though they only sang of rest, and labored no to-day,
The hum of bees seems softer, too, from out the clear blue heaven, As if the lowliest creatures know this day for rewas given.

The spacious tracts of meadow land, of bean fields, and of wheat, And all the globe are undisturbed by sound of La The cotter in his Sunday garb, with peace within his breast. Roams idly by the garden side, and feels himself at

The streams, the trees, the woods, and breeze, the bird and rov ng bee, Seem all to breathe a softer sound, a holier melody You little church, too, tells of rest to all the summer For the bell long since, has ceased to peal, that called for praise and prayer.

But while I stand 'mid these tall elms, a sound comes creeping near, That falls like music heard in dreams upon my charmed ear. Like music heard in dreams of heaven, that sacred sound doth steal,

From where the old church aisles repeat the organ's solemn peal. Now Heaven be praised! a gracious boon is thi sweet rest to me-How many shall this truth repeat to-day on bended How many a weary heart it cheers, how many an aching breast; Now Heaven be praised, a gracious boon is the sweet day of rest!

The estimate that is now accorded this preparation by the medical profession and by others competent to judge of its merits, may be seen in the fact that it has been prescribed by many of our most eminent Physicians in this country, and has attracted the attention of a celebrated profession of the Edinburg College, Scotland, by whom it has been successfully used in a career of an aggravated

CALLAWAY COUNTY, MISSOURI, Dear Sir—With great pleasure I inform that your reparation of Beech Drop has accomplished for me what I thought beyond the reach of human agency. for the last twelve years I have been afflicted with Scrofula of a Cancerous form. So extensive was the ulcers and so herrible my appearance that my case became notorious with all the Faculty in this and the adjoining counties—in fact I had obtained the best medical aid in our State, without any abatement of the disease. Through a friend I procured a half dozen bottles of your Beech Drep, after using it, so perfect was the cure, that hundreds visited me. My desire is to benefit my fellow man; with that purpose I beg all afflicted with Scrofula in any form Enclosed you will find an order from some friends for the preparation. Very truly, JNO. C. FLINT.
